

Titan Lenders Corp Launches Redesigned Web Site

- Mortgage fulfillment outsource expert spotlights compliance, market adaptability -

(October 8, 2008) Denver, CO – Titan Lenders Corp, a mortgage back office fulfillment services provider specializing in closing, funding, and post closing services has launched a redesigned web site to inform residential mortgage loan providers about the benefits of outsourcing as a variable cost management strategy and to ensure compliance. The Titan Lenders Corp site addresses the concerns of six key market segments including: broker-to-banker transitions, community financial institutions including banks and credit unions, correspondent mortgage lenders, reverse mortgage lenders and warehouse lenders.

Titan Lenders Corp is an outsource variable cost solution alternative for mortgage bankers, brokers, financial institutions and investors seeking to reduce risk, errors and overhead in their mortgage operations, while remaining responsive to fluctuations in their loan closing pipeline.

“Business process outsourcing offers indisputable benefits to the mortgage lending business model,” said Titan Lenders Corp. founder and CEO Mary Kladde. “We are interested in helping lenders find the information they need to understand how outsource solutions can increase their profitability, ensure compliance and improve adaptability to a mercurial market.”

The new site also links visitors to the firm’s blog, “Mortgage Industry Insights,” in which Titan Lenders Corp executives provide perspective on how current industry and regulatory initiatives impact mortgage lending operations.

“Lenders that combine strong internal policies and processes with smart decisions about outsourcing will have the scalability and elasticity to succeed in any market,” said Titan Lenders Corp vice president for sales Ruth Lee. “We redesigned our web site with those lenders and that message at the forefront.”

About Titan Lenders Corp.

Founded in 2007 by acknowledged industry expert Mary Kladde, Titan Lenders Corp. is a mortgage back office outsource services provider. Titan enables mortgage bankers, brokers and investors to decrease risk, increase closing capacity, reduce errors and protect loan profitability by outsourcing process-intensive back office functions while focusing on productive origination strategies. For more information about Titan Lenders Corp., contact Mary Kladde at mary.kladde@titanlenderscorp.com.

###